Edited by Gabriela Dutrénit and Mark Dodgson; Introduction co-authored by Jorge Katz

A special issue of Innovation: Management, Policy & Practice (Volume 7 Issue 2–3 April–August 2005)

Science and technology appear to be the key to industrial development in advanced economies. However, how they can be used for economic growth and social reconstruction in today's developing countries remains an unanswered question. This collection explores experiences of innovation in Latin America through 12 case studies. Drawing upon lessons learned, new policy approaches for other developing countries are presented.

'... the real challenge for policy and decision makers is how to progress from circumstantial activities to a "pro-active" technological strategy that would allow major innovation effort and technological generation activity to drive the development process.' – Introduction

This special issue is also available as a course reader for 2006/07 course adoptions.

22ND ANZAM CONFERENCE 2008 – MANAGING IN THE PACIFIC CENTURY

2 – 5 December 2008, University of Auckland, New Zealand

The pattern and pace of economic transformation in the Pacific Rim is unprecedented and presents new challenges and new opportunities for organisations throughout the world.

The role of managers, management and leadership will be fundamental to this transformation. Irrespective of the sector, the industry or the form of the organisation, the ability to respond and adapt in a world increasingly dominated by Asia-Pacific alliances, innovations and enterprise will be essential to an organisation's competitive success.

These issues create an excellent thematic background for the scientific program which will be supported by a social program in a city that has everything to make a delegate's stay enjoyable. I look forward to seeing you in New Zealand.

Professor Marie Wilson
Conference Convenor
The University of Auckland Business School

Call for papers and workshops – Closing date: 20 June 2008
PAPERS - Theoretical, empirical, literature reviews, management education issues, and case studies are invited. Maximum 12 pages in length. The Journal of Management & Organization (JMO) is the official journal of the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Management (ANZAM), which, internationally, has earned respect as a scholarly publication. JMO is currently published and marketed by eContent Management Pty Ltd. Articles are available online on Atypon-link.com both on a subscription and pay-per-view basis. JMO is also aggregated in the Business Section of the ProQuest Research Library™ in the United States.

ANZAM is the peak professional body for management educators, researchers and practitioners in Australia and New Zealand, with about 600 individual members and 50 institutional members (representing most Australian and New Zealand universities) as well as members from other countries.

ANZAM's Purpose

ANZAM is a multi-disciplinary academy with the aim of advancing scholarship and practice in management education and research. Its members represent the full range of management interests including: organisational behaviour, small business, marketing, entrepreneurship, human resource management, strategic management, organisational theory, management information systems, business ethics, industrial relations, leadership, E-commerce, international management, operations management, quality management, critical management, public sector management, sustainability, research methods, gender issues in management, management in the non-profit sector, technology and innovation management. Members are also drawn from the fields of economics, finance and accounting.

ANZAM's Intent

1. To further the development of management education and associated disciplines in Australia, New Zealand and globally;
2. To encourage scholarship, research and management practice;
3. To share and disseminate management knowledge and practice through a variety of mechanisms; and
4. To promote greater collaboration between the Academy's Members and its various stakeholders and alliance partners.

Information about becoming a Professional Member, an Associate Member or an Institutional Member of ANZAM is available at: <http://www.anzam.uts.edu.au/membership/index.htm>
