

- and Pomponazzi on the place of man in the universe,' 'Paduan Averroism and Alexandrism in the light of recent studies,' 'The origin and development of the language of Italian Prose,' 'Music and learning in the early Italian Renaissance,' 'The modern system of the arts.')
- *Luchetta, Francesca. Il medico e filosofo bellunese Andrea Alpago (1522). Padova: Editrice Antenore, 1964. 93 p.
- Mersenne, P. Marin. Correspondance. Tome VIII: Août 1638-décembre 1639. Paris: C.N.R.S., 1963. iv, 787 p. 100 F.
- Millepierres, François. La vie quotidienne des médecins au temps de Molière. Paris: Hachette, 1964. 256 p. Rel., 14,59 F.
- Misrahi, Robert. Spinoza. Paris: Seghers, 1964. 202 p. 7,10 F.
- More, Sir Thomas. Utopia. Ed. by Edward Surtz. New Haven: Yale U Press, 1964. 158 p. pap. $1.75.
- *Scot, Reginald. The discoverie of witchcraft. Introd. by Hugh Ross Williamson. Carbondale: Southern Illinois U Press, 1965. vi, 400 p. $22.50.
- Secret, F. Les Kabbalistes chrétiens de la Renaissance. Paris: Dunod, 1964. xvi, 372 p. Rel., 39 F.
- South Newington Parish Church. South Newington churchwarden's accounts, 1553-1684. Transcribed and ed. by E. R. C. Brinkworth, with bibliographic descriptions by H. G. Pollard and D. M. Rogers. Humber House, Bloxham, Banbury (Oxon.): Banbury Historical Society, 1964. xxiii, 82 p. 30 /-.
- The treasury of mathematics*. Ed. by Henrietta O. Medoneck. New York: Philosophical Library, 1964. 820 p. $15.
- *Trimble, William Raleigh. The Catholic laity in Elizabethan England, 1558-1603. Cambridge: The Belknap Press of Harvard U Press, 1964. 266 p. $6.25.
- *Walker, D. P. The decline of Hell: Seventeenth century discussions of eternal torment. Chicago: U of Chicago Press, 1964. 263 p. $5.95.

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS

Robert E. Taylor

THE RENAISSANCE THE MIDDLE AGES CLASSICAL ANTIQUITY

LATEST CATALOGUES:

- 224: The Middle Ages
225/226: The 16th and 17th Centuries (in 2 parts)
227: Spain and Portugal
228/229/230: The Ancient World (in 3 parts)

WILLIAM SALLOCH Old, Rare & Scholarly Books
Pines Bridge Road, Ossining, New York

Freedom and Authority

A SYMPOSIUM IN THE 16TH CENTURY
OF SAINT THOMAS MORE

August 12, 13 and 14, 1965

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

This symposium, hopefully "fruitful, pleasant and witty," will discuss freedom and authority in the context of the 16th century of Thomas More. Scholars on More, Erasmus and Luther will share their knowledge with those interested in order to gain insights useful to this generation. The menu and music of the 16th century in attractive locations in the San Francisco Bay Area will crystalize the three evenings of this symposium. Limited to 100 persons: $100 per person.

LECTURERS:

M. l'Abbe Germain Marc'hadour, Angers
Professor R. S. Sylvester, Yale University
Professor Lewis W. Spitz, Stanford University

DISCUSSANTS:

Sister Noëlle-Marie Egretier, Angers
Rev. B. C. Fisher (Archivist), London
and others

Chairman: JOHN E. BURCHARD
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
(Dean of Humanities and Social Science)

For information write:

WILLIAM J. MONIHAN, S.J.
University of San Francisco, San Francisco, California, USA

94117

