worldview readers may subscribe now for one year (regular rate is $4 a year) and receive IN SOLITARY WITNESS: THE LIFE AND DEATH OF FRANZ JÄGERSTÄTTER by Gordon C. Zahn ($5.95), both for $6.00.

Peter Viereck wrote of In Solitary Witness: "May be the best non-fiction book of the year. With the highest scholarship, along with human compassion and understanding, it tells the story of an Austrian Catholic anti-Nazi martyr, an unsophisticated and honest peasant, perhaps a candidate for sainthood, who died, not merely 'heroically,' but serenely, sweetly, for opposing Hitler's war."

"This excellent biography of a Christian martyr is a most revealing account of a simple peasant, a heartening story which shows the resources of religious faith in the hearts of ordinary people."

— Reinhold Niebuhr

"In Solitary Witness raises the question of the Church's vision of protest and prophecy in the gravest spiritual crisis man has ever known."

— Thomas Merton

"Like Thomas More, Jägerstätter stood out alone against the advice of his own bishop, of his priest-advisers, and of his family. Committing his children to God, he refused all participation in Hitler's war, giving reasons endorsed since then most fully in the Charter of Human Rights and by the late John XXIII."

— Archbishop T. D. Roberts, S.J.

If Jägerstätter is relevant to our present crisis, so is CROSS CURRENTS, which since Fall 1950 has been an ecumenical fact and a major source for all concerned with the relevance of religion to every aspect of life. Its roster of authors is a Who's Who of contemporary religious thought: Rahner, Mounier, Tillich, Buber, Guardini, Ricoeur, Heschel, Merleau-Ponty, Niebuhr, Küng, Congar, Meyendorff, Teilhard, Blondel, Arendt, Monchanin, Domenach, Leonard, Murray, Weigel, McKenzie, Florovsky, Fedotov, Berdyaev, Solovyov, Scheler, Johann, Panikkar, Maritain, Sturzo, Bernanos, Bouyer, Albright, Lacroix, Chenu, McDermott, Fontinell, Dewart, Mascall, Neher, Brown, Marcel, Altizer and Casserley.
