Netherlands International Law Review

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

Editor-in-Chief

P. Vlas, Free University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The Netherlands International Law Review (NILR) addresses relevant topics and recent trends in international law and the conflict of laws, including their comparative legal aspects. Articles are combined with English-language reports on topical Dutch judicial decisions, surveys of the case law on the topic of civil jurisdiction and enforcement of judgments in Europe, an update on the current developments regarding The Hague's international tribunals, an overview of the Hague Conventions on Private International Law, book reviews, and occasionally, a short commentary on case law or legislation. The journal serves as a reliable source of information for scholars and practitioners and anyone who wants to stay up-to-date with the most important developments in these fields.

**Please note a subscription includes an annual volume of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law (NYIL)**

NEW IN 2012

TEL

TRANSNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Transnational Environmental Law (TEL) is a peer-reviewed journal that will be launched by Cambridge University Press in 2012. TEL is dedicated to the study of environmental law and governance beyond the state. It approaches legal and regulatory developments with an interest in the contribution of non-state actors and an awareness of the multi-level governance context in which contemporary environmental law unfolds.

TEL warmly invites new work on topics within the scope of the journal from scholars, lawyers and professionals active in fields related to environmental law and governance.

Further information about submissions, manuscript preparation and the Editors can be found here:

Celebrating 25 Years in 2012

Editor-in-Chief

Larissa van den Herik, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

HiiL is an independent research and advisory institute devoted to promoting a deeper understanding and more transparent and effective implementation of justice and the rule of law, worldwide.

We facilitate and advise on experimentation and the development of innovative solutions for improving legal systems and resolving conflicts at any level. We conduct both fundamental research and empirical evidenced-based research. We serve as a knowledge and networking hub for organisations and individuals in both the public and the private sector. HiiL aims to achieve solutions that all participants in the process perceive as just. In line with our evidence-based approach, we are non-judgemental with regard to the legal systems it studies.

Helping you to meet your challenge

- by developing smart, inclusive solutions that will deliver justice transparently, improve legal strategies and, consequently, the functioning of legal systems.
- by evaluating legal systems, procedures for rule-making and dispute-settlement processes, helping to improve legal strategies and strengthen innovations.
- by investigating the efficacy of many different legal systems and practical solutions in HiiL's unique Justice Innovation Lab.
- by helping to develop justice strategies which take into account future trends in the development of legal systems.

Ready to work with you

Based in The Hague, HiiL comprises some 20 researchers, practitioners, consultants and support staff. They are linked to a broad network of more than 140 experts in countries around the world. HiiL is a non-profit, non-governmental organisation. Our clients include government ministries, NGOs, international organisations, multinationals and leading law firms.
