NETHERLANDS INSOLVENCY LAW

The Netherlands Bankruptcy Act and the Most Important Legal Concepts

Peter J.M. Declercq

NEW

Netherlands Insolvency Law is the first book in the English language covering the Netherlands insolvency law as a whole with a focus on bankruptcy and the most important legal concepts pertaining to bankruptcy. It provides the reader with an understanding of the Netherlands Bankruptcy Act, which is the main source of insolvency law in the Netherlands, by laying out the primary law in an order and manner which is logical and comprehensive. Where necessary, guidance has been sought in the parliamentary notes and the interpretation of the law in landmark cases. Furthermore, grey areas and divergence of views have been highlighted. Concepts that are covered include actio pauliana, set-off, corporate liability and wrongful act. Pledges and mortgages, being the most important security rights in the Netherlands, are also discussed, as is the EU Insolvency Regulation (2000) and its impact on the Netherlands insolvency practice.

Netherlands Insolvency Law is a practical book for use by internal and external legal counsel, Dutch and non-Dutch companies, students, academics and practitioners alike. Throughout the book summaries are included to highlight key points. The book is complemented by, inter alia, a Further Reading section, a Bibliography, a Table of Cases and a General Index.

Peter J.M. Declercq has a master's degree from New York University School of Law. He is working for De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek (a member firm of Linklaters & Alliance) as a lawyer, currently in their London office. He has an international practice with expertise in the fields of insolvency law, banking and finance.

AUTHORS' GUIDE

CONTENTS OF THE NILR

The NILR invites the submission of articles on legal questions, legal developments, commentaries, analysis and comprehensive overviews in the fields of public international law, private international law and comparative law. These articles must be original and may be of any length up to a maximum of around 35 printed pages each of approximately 450 words. Shorter articles and commentaries of between 5 and 10 printed pages are also published.

The NILR also publishes book reviews and reports of Dutch judicial decisions involving questions of private international law. These have a maximum length of 5 and 15 printed pages, respectively.

The NILR is an English-language publication.

SUBMISSION OF MATERIAL

Authors are requested to send their manuscript to the Editorial Office NILR, c/o T.M.C. Asser Instituut, P.O. Box 30461, 2500 GL The Hague, The Netherlands; Tel. +31(70)3420300; Fax +31(70)3420359; E-mail: nilr@asser.nl. All submitted material should be in English and should be typed using a personal computer (preferably using WordPerfect or Word). Material may be submitted at any time of the year and, if accepted for publication, will be published at the earliest available opportunity.

FEES

Authors will not receive a fee, but will be presented with the issue of the NILR in which their contribution appears, together with 25 off-prints of their work in the case of articles and case reports and 5 off-prints in the case of book reviews. Additional off-prints may be ordered prior to publication, upon payment of a standard fee.

COPYRIGHT

Copyright is exclusively vested in the NILR and the author(s) jointly. Acceptance of the Board of Editors' offer to publish implies, however, that authors agree to an embargo on publication elsewhere, either in English or another language, for a period of two years following the date of publication in the NILR.

The agreement of the Board of Editors will be necessary before the article can be subsequently published elsewhere.

EDITORIAL POLICY AND DISCRETION

The Board of Editors exclusively reserves the right to suggest modifications and/or additions to all materials accepted for publication, and further reserves the right at any time to reject or to withhold or postpone the publication of any material.

The decision of the Board of Editors will be final.

REVISION

All material accepted for publication may, at the discretion of the Managing Editor, be subjected to linguistic and grammatical revision. This will apply mainly to contributions written by authors whose mother-tongue is not English.

In all such cases the revised text will be sent to the author for his/her approval.

CORRECTION OF PROOFS AND MODIFICATIONS TO THE TEXT

Authors will receive proofs for correction. All accepted material will have been adapted and type-set in the NILR house-style. The NILR does not accept any significant departures from its house-style. Examples of the house-style are available upon request.

Authors may make minor changes or additions to the galley proofs. Substantial modifications, however, may only be made in consultation with and with the consent of the Board of Editors.
