FROM THE MARGINS

A Celebration of the Theological Work of Donald W. Dayton
Christian Collins Winn

ISBN 13: 978-1-55635-135-8 / $45 / 458 pp. / paper

In From the Margins, friends and colleagues respond to major essays by Dayton (several published here for the first time) so as to celebrate and reflect on this diverse and rich body of work. The essays highlight the breadth of Dayton's contribution while also revealing a methodological core. The latter could be described as Dayton's deconstructive reading of standard scholarly narratives in order to short-circuit their domesticating effects on the more radical aspects of American Christianity. Dayton's work has challenged long-held assumptions about the "conservative" nature of American Christianity by showing that both in their history and in their deeper theological substructures, traditions such as Evangelicalism and Pentecostalism are far more radical and productive of social change than was previously imagined.

"Donald Dayton's writings on the history of American evangelicalism combine impressive learning with a passion for the relevance of scholarship. His challenging interpretations have helped many others of us to rethink things from fresh perspectives."

—GEORGE MARSDEN, author of many books including Fundamentalism and American Culture, The Outrageous Idea of Christian Scholarship, and Jonathan Edwards

THE COMPLETE WRITINGS OF ROGER WILLIAMS

Roger Williams

with new Introductions by Edwin Gaustad

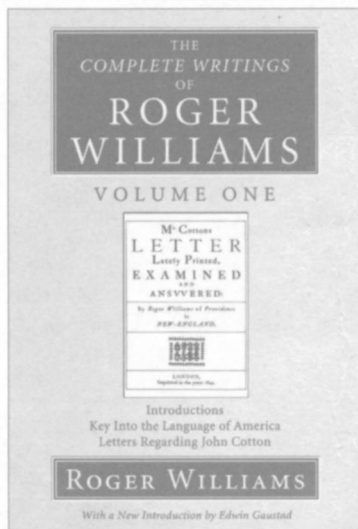

ISBN 13: 978-1-55635-281-2 / 7 volumes (also sold separately)

"Roger Williams was one of those rare individuals who took the accepted ideas of his time and followed them to conclusions that challenged his contemporaries and still challenge us. To have his complete writings once again available is a great service to all who would understand American religion and political institutions at the deepest level."

—EDMUND S. MORGAN

NEW IN CHURCH HISTORY

Getting to Know the Church Fathers

AN EVANGELICAL INTRODUCTION

Bryan M. Litfin

9781587431968

304 pp. • $22.99p

"A lively and engaging introduction to the church's earliest and most venerable teachers for evangelical readers. Shattering the stereotypes of the church fathers, Litfin shows that they were animated by the Holy Scriptures and love for Christ. Getting to Know the Church Fathers challenges evangelicals to claim the great tradition of Christian thought as their own and invites them to embrace it as their story and their heritage, not solely that of Catholics and the Orthodox."—Robert Louis Wilken, University of Virginia

The Sermon on the Mount through the Centuries

FROM THE EARLY CHURCH TO JOHN PAUL II

Jeffrey P. Greenman, Timothy Larsen, and Stephen R. Spencer, editors

9781587432057

288 pp. • $24.99p

This collection of essays offers an engaging approach to the study of historical theology and biblical exegesis. Stellar contributing scholars include William Cavanaugh (on John Paul II & Leonardo Boff), Stanley Hauerwas (on Deitrich Bonhoeffer & John Howard Yoder), Mark A. Noll (on John Wesley), Susan Schreiner (on Martin Luther), and Robert Louis Wilken (on Augustine). The essayists examine various interpretative approaches to the Sermon on the Mount, providing glimpses into historical perspectives on a passage that distills the very essence of the teaching of Jesus.

Reading the Old Testament with the Ancient Church

EXPLORING THE FORMATION OF EARLY CHRISTIAN THOUGHT

Ronald E. Heine

9780801027772

208 pp. • $18.99p

"Heine brings together two contemporary interests:

renewed attention to the Old Testament as Christian Scripture and rediscovery of the church fathers. He offers the reading of the Old Testament with the church fathers as guidance for the contemporary church's use of the whole Bible. . . . The early church's example is a call to do more than understand the text; it is a call to live in and to mold life by the text. I recommend this excellent book to a wide readership."—Everett Ferguson, Abilene Christian University

The Belgic Confession

ITS HISTORY AND SOURCES

Nicolaas H. Gootjes

9780801032356

240 pp. • $29.99p

"The Belgic Confession of 1561 was the most significant confessional document to emerge from the Reformation in the Netherlands in the sixteenth century. . . . How surprising, therefore, that this volume is the first full-length introduction to the origin and history of the confession to appear in English! The author has provided us with a careful and comprehensive treatment of the historical development, authorship, early influence, revisions, and translations of the Belgic Confession."—Lyle D. ## FIGURES IN THE CARPET

Finding the Human Person in the American Past

WILFRED M. McCLAY, editor

"A stellar roster of first-rate historians dealing seriously with a perennially important subject. The case studies and more theoretical accounts in this book amount to an unusually perceptive assessment of how 'the person' has been viewed in American history. This very fine book is both wide-ranging and profound."

Faith in the Great Physician

Suffering and Divine Healing in American Culture,
1860–1900

Heather D. Curtis

Frank S. and
Elizabeth D. Brewer
Prize, American
Society of Church
History

Faith in the Great Physician tells the story of how participants in the evangelical divine healing movement of the late nineteenth century transformed the ways Americans coped with physical affliction and pursued bodily health. Examining the politics of sickness, health, and healing, Curtis encourages critical reflection on the theological, cultural, and social forces that come into play when one questions the purpose of suffering and the possibility of healing.

American Catholics in the Protestant Imagination

Rethinking the Academic Study of Religion

Michael P. Carroll

"Carroll's challenge to the 'Protestant Degradation Narrative' is creative, credible, and one that is long overdue. Carroll is insightful in illuminating discrepancies between actual historical fact and (Protestant) theological assumptions in regard to both the definition and understanding of God and that of religion."

—William D. Dinges, Catholic University of America

The World of Maria Gaetana Agnesi, Mathematician of God

Massimo Mazzotti

Mazzotti reconstructs the wide spectrum of Maria Agnesi's social experience and examines her relationships to various traditions—religious, political, social, and mathematical. This provocative study shows how she and her fellow Enlightenment Catholics modified tradition in an effort to reconcile aspects of modern philosophy and science with traditional morality and theology.

THE LEAST OF THESE

Selected Readings in Christian History

Eric R. Severson

ISBN 13: 978-1-55635-106-8

Retail: $31 / 282 pp. / paper

This collection of primary documents from Christian history spans the second to eighteenth centuries (Irenaeus to George Whitefield). Severson has chosen writings that all deal with the interpretation of the Parable of the Sheep and Goats (Matthew 25:31–46).

“Severson’s The Least of These is a unique and brilliant contribution to theological pedagogy. Taking a central biblical text, it illustrates the development, twists, and turns of Christian theology from the beginning up to the eighteenth century with commentaries on that text from a host of extremely diverse theologians. Although intended for beginners, this volume is even more helpful to students (and professors!) with enough background to say, ‘Aha! Wesley’s sermon on this one text expresses his entire sanctification theology.’”

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.
