

CHINA REPORT

The only journal from India which throws critical light on China's policies, particularly towards the countries of Asia and Africa.

Strives to fill the information gap which for years has marked the general understanding of Communist China in India and other countries of the region.

Written in a manner and style which would interest every careful student of China.

Regular features include:

Exhaustive articles and short notes on current events—Reasoned analyses of the policies, programmes and actions of Communist China—Biographical studies of important Chinese leaders—Running Commentary on the Sino-Soviet dispute—Chronology of important events—Reviews of latest books.

Annual subscription:

Rs.5.00 (India); 15s. (U.K.); $2.00 (U.S.A.)

SURVEY

A JOURNAL OF SOVIET AND EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES

Edited by Walter Laqueur and Leopold Labedz

SURVEY is the leading quarterly Journal on Soviet and East European affairs. It deals with all aspects of political, cultural, social, and economic life in that part of the world. Its aim is to provide balanced analysis and interpretation.

SURVEY justifiably has gained a reputation for dispassionate and accurate reporting. It is read not only by specialists but by students of world affairs generally. Combining a scholarly approach with readability, its special numbers devoted to a single theme have become works of reference and have been published in various languages:

- 1962 Polycentrism
- 1963 The Future of Communist Society
- 1964 New Wave in Russia?
- 1965 The State of Soviet Studies
- 1965 Soviet Science Today

Among recent contributors we would mention:

Raymond Aron
Z. K. Brzezinski
Sir William Hayter
Dennis Healey
George Kennan
Sir Bernard Lovell
Richard Lowenthal
Arthur Schlesinger
Hugh Seton-Watson
Adam Ulam
