

CRITIC AS SCIENTIST

The modernist poetics of Ezra Pound

IAN F A BELL

This book is the first to offer a detailed overview of Pound's early poetics; it seeks to discover the origins of Pound's critical vocabulary and to assess the relationship of that vocabulary to his poetics in the crucial early years of this century. Ian Bell demonstrates how the issues and discourse of contemporary science informed Pound's critical writings and demystifies his scientific terminology.

Crisis in the Making

The Political Economy of New York State

PETER D. McCLELLAND and ALAN L. MAGDOVITZ

This book examines the fiscal and economic crisis in New York City and State. The authors demonstrate that the crisis was as much the result of political manoeuvring as it was the outcome of long-term economic trends and fiscal ineptitude and they conclude that its causes will not be resolved until the government structure is thoroughly overhauled.

Cradle of the Middle Class

The Family in Oneida County, New York, 1780-1865

MARY P. RYAN

An examination of the emergence in the early nineteenth century of the middle-class family with its sharp division of male and female roles. The analysis sheds light on the developing social structure of a frontier area whose major village became first a commercial boom town and then a manufacturing centre.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

- 1 All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, School of English and American Studies, University of East Anglia, Norwich NR4 7TJ, England.
- 2 Articles should generally contain about 5,000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editors.
- 3 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
- 4 Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing (including footnotes), preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams, maps and illustrations may be included.
- 5 Spelling may conform either to British or American usage, providing it is consistent throughout.
- 6 Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered consecutively, and may most conveniently be placed, in double spacing, at the end of the article.
- 7 For guidance on matters of style, contributors should refer either to the MLA Handbook (1977), or to the Journal of American Studies Style Notes, copies of which may be obtained from the Editors.
- 8 Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
- 9 Notes intended for the Editors or Printer should be on a separate sheet.
- 10 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within three days of receiving them.
- 11 Corrections should be kept to an absolute minimum. They should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
- 12 Contributors of articles and review essays receive 25 free offprints. Extra copies may be ordered according to a scale of charges.
- 13 Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
- 14 Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the USA.
