Theory and Society is an undogmatic bi-monthly journal of the social sciences, produced by a worldwide fellowship of scholars who seek, through synthesis of sociology and marxism, to deepen understanding of the 'present as history' and to renew critical social theory. It is published for critical sociologists, independent marxists, and for other unpacified intellectuals.

Theory and Society works to keep sociology and marxism open to one another, seeking to stimulate and to husband social theory's great traditions. Preserving the viable works of Max Weber, Emile Durkheim, and Karl Marx, we also develop them in creative directions. Rather than the partisan of some special theory, then, Theory and Society is the guardian of a larger theoretic culture.

Subsidized neither by professional associations, universities, nor private benefactors, Theory and Society has grown only because it publishes work of excellence and interest to its readers.

Synthese

An International Journal for Epistemology, Methodology and Philosophy of Science

Editor-in-chief: JAAKO HINTIKKA

Editors: DAVID GRUENDNER, RISTO HILPINEN, and ESA SAARINEN

Synthese is one of the leading journals in the world in the philosophy of science and publishes articles in all the fields covered by the subtitle. Special attention is paid to the role of mathematical, logical and linguistic methods in the general methodology of science and in the foundations of the different sciences, be they physical, biological, behavioural or social. The journal also regularly publishes special issues on prescribed themes.
