'Kepler'

.. Solution

WITHOUT offending the palate or disturbing the digestion, 'Kepler' Solution ensures the absorption of cod liver oil to an extent hitherto impossible. No plain or prepared oil is so acceptable to fastidious invalids and young children or so easily assimilated as this intimate incorporation of the finest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil in 'Kepler' Malt Extract. It is the best preparation of malt and oil which can be produced from the finest materials by the latest and most original methods under the control of experts who have devoted many years to studying the subject. 'Kepler' Solution is supplied in small and large bottles.
