Notes for Contributors

1. Manuscripts should not exceed 10,000 words (or equivalent). Shorter pieces and squibs are welcome.
2. Authors should submit to the appropriate editor an electronic copy of the paper, preferably in Microsoft Word DOC format. The name(s) of the author(s) and full contact details should be on a separate page at the start of the document. Occasionally, an author may be asked to send a paper copy of the manuscript by post or a PDF version as well.
3. If an accepted manuscript departs significantly from the style specified below, the contributor may be asked to reformat it. Detailed instructions for contributors are available at http://assets.cambridge.org/ELL/ELL_ifc.pdf.
4. Authors of accepted articles will be asked to assign copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press.
5. In lieu of offprints, contributors will be supplied with a PDF file of their contribution upon publication.

International Society for the Linguistics of English (ISLE) English Language and Linguistics (ELL) is the journal associated with ISLE, the International Society for the Linguistics of English. The central aim of ISLE is to promote the study of the English language, that is, the study of the structure, history and use of standard and non-standard varieties of English, in terms of both form and function, at an international level. The society aims to provide a geographically and theoretically neutral central contact point for all those who are academically active and who identify with this aim. Members of ISLE are eligible for a discount subscription to ELL. For information on ISLE conferences, other ISLE activities, and how to become a member, visit http://www.isle-linguistics.org/.
