"Reformed Dogmatics has been the fountainhead of Reformed theology for the last hundred years. It is by far the most profound and comprehensive Reformed systematic theology of the twentieth century. I cannot express how delighted I was to read volume I for the first time in my own language! I hope it will have a large readership and will bring forth much theological and spiritual fruit."

—John M. Frame, Reformed Theological Seminary

"It not only is encompassing in content but also shows everywhere a profound insight into the basic problems that a Reformed theology has to face and a deep sensitivity for modern culture. The combination of both made Bavinck's work famous and studying his work fruitful for a new generation."

—Cornelis van der Kooi, Free University, Amsterdam

"Reveals the advantage of careful and sustained reflection on Christian truth that is both faithful to the church and engaged with the academy. Readers will discover more than Bavinck the theologian in these volumes; they will learn about the God whom he worshiped and served."

—D. G. Hart, author of The Lost Soul of American Protestantism

Albrecht Dürer's Renaissance

Humanism, Reformation, and the Art of Faith

David Hotchkiss Price

David Hotchkiss Price, a specialist in Renaissance cultural and ecclesiastical history, has broken new ground with this comprehensive analysis of Renaissance humanism as the foundation for Dürer's religious art and, in particular, for Dürer's reception of the Reformation movements. Price also offers an innovative study of the relationships between text and image, and a pioneering assessment of the representation of Jews in Dürer's religious art.

State of Virginity

Gender, Religion, and Politics in an Early Modern Catholic State

Ulrike Strasser

In premodern Germany, both the emerging centralized government and the powerful Catholic Church redefined gender roles for their own ends. Ulrike Strasser's interdisciplinary study of Catholic state-building examines this history from the vantage point of the virginal female body. Focusing on Bavaria, Germany's first Absolutist State, Strasser recounts how state authorities forced chastity upon lower-class women to demarcate legitimate forms of sexuality and maintain class hierarchies. At the same time, they cloistered groups of upper-class women to harness the spiritual authority associated with holy virgins to the political authority of the state.

At Ease in Zion

A Social History of Southern Baptists,
1865-1900

RUFUS B. SPAIN

WITH A FOREWORD BY SAMUEL S. HILL

With a title that references the biblical description of peace and prosperity, this book examines attitudes of Southern Baptists (and their denomination and convention) toward the profound social, moral, economic, and political changes the South faced in the post-Civil War era.

"A balanced view of southern history, [At Ease in Zion] is evidence of a new spirit of self-criticism among Southern Baptists and will be a useful source for students of southern society and religion."

From Meetinghouse to Megachurch

A Material and Cultural History

Anne C. Loveland
and Otis B. Wheeler

From Meetinghouse to Megachurch is a superb account, from the perspective of material and cultural history, of the rise of the evangelical megachurch—a church architecturally designed to attract a large following. In 1970, there were only ten megachurches. By the mid 1990s, however, megachurches numbered around four hundred, representing nearly 2 percent of the Protestant churches in the United States. In this new study, Anne C. Loveland and Otis B. Wheeler demonstrate that evangelical megachurches evolved from multiple models and influences. Lavishly illustrated with more than 150 images, From Meetinghouse to Megachurch fills a significant gap in the historiography of evangelical religion in the United States.

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History. Membership dues for individuals in the U.S. and Canada are $50 per year for regular members, $25 per year for retired persons, and free for two years for students with the approval of a professor who is a member of the Society (after two years, students pay $25 annually until graduation). Dues for individuals in other countries are $75 per year for regular members, $30 per year for retired persons and students (with the same two-year gratis stipulations). Institutional subscriptions are $75 per year in the U.S. and Canada, $100 per year in all other countries. Single issues are $25 each. Please make remittances payable to "American Society of Church History."

Office of the executive secretary: American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701-8517.

Subscription applications, renewals, changes of address, claims for missing numbers, orders for single copies of current or back issues, and requests for permission to quote should be sent to the executive secretary. Claims for missing numbers will be honored without charge if made within two months of the regular month of publication.

Microfilm reproductions of The American Society of Church History Papers, series I and II, and of Church History, volumes 1–17 (1932–48), are available from the ATLA Preservation Board. Send manuscripts, books for review, and requests about advertising to the editorial office. Manuscripts should run 6,000–11,000 words (or approximately 20–35 pages), not including endnotes, and should be printed double-spaced in 11- or 12-point font; endnotes must be printed double-spaced on separate pages following the text. The editors request (1) three copies of the manuscript (in order to protect the author's anonymity during the review process, the author's name should appear only on the title page of the essay); (2) three copies of a 200-word abstract (if Church History publishes the essay, the abstract may be printed above the first line of the text of the article and/or it may be included on the Church History web page at www.churchhistory.org); (3) a 3½-inch diskette containing the manuscript and abstract (instead of sending a diskette, you may submit your manuscript and abstract by electronic mail). Further guidelines are available on request.

Church History is printed by the Science Press division of Cadmus Professional Communications, Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Periodicals postage paid at Red Bank, New Jersey and additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send address changes to American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.
