ABOUT APSA

Since 1903, APSA has been the leading professional organization for the study of political science. Today, the association serves more than 10,000 members in 100 countries around the world. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry to deepen our collective understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship around the world. For more information, visit www.apsanet.org

ON THE COVER

The Public Scholars' articles featured in this issue highlight several hot-button issues, including WikiLeaks, school shootings, and white anger. Other articles in this issue note that educators have witnessed increased activism in the student body, Covid-19 variants, and the need to reform the political science curriculum.
