

Psychiatric Bulletin
of the Royal College of Psychiatrists

March 1989

Volume 13 Number 3

Contents

President's letter	113
Interview
In conversation with Felix Post: Part II	114
Articles
The Lockerbie air disaster: one psychiatrist's experience. Robin G. McCreadie	120
Trainees forum : Working in consultation-liaison psychiatry in the USA: an educational experience. Paul Foster	123
A year in Auckland: a personal view. Darryl Watts	127
Clinical decisions about patients: management within multidisciplinary clinical teams. J. J. Cockburn	130
Participating in primary care: differing styles of psychiatric liaison. A. R. K. Mitchell	135
Psychiatric education in Yorkshire: the Yorkshire Regional Psychiatric Association: 40 years – 1949–1989. D. A. Spencer	138
Monitoring community care in York. Giles Harborne and Annette Henderson	140
Conference report
Royal Society of Health – Implementing Sections 135 and 136 of the Mental Health Act. Geoffrey Wallis	144
Miscellany	147
Correspondence	148
The College
South Western Division trainees' day	151
Annual Elections: Honorary Officers, Council and Court of Electors	152
Elections to the Fellowship, 1989	153
Examination results	154
The College library	156
Report on services and training from the Executive Committee of the Substance Misuse Section	158
Obituary	159
Forthcoming events	160

Notice to contributors inside front cover