“Non-Germans” under the Third Reich

The Nazi Judicial and Administrative System in Germany and Occupied Eastern Europe, with Special Regard to Occupied Poland, 1939–1945

Diemut Majer

translated by Peter Thomas Hill, Edward Vance Humphrey, and Brian Levin

“An exhaustive analysis of the numerous legal and executive provisions and practices applicable to ‘Fremdvölkische.’ I consider it the only scholarly work of this nature that addresses all of the people concerned and the treatment they received from the Nazi authorities.”—Walter O. Weyrauch, University of Florida

“There has not been such a comprehensive presentation of the Third Reich’s legal system before, and it will be a long time before another—written by a single author—appears.”

SELECTIONS FROM THE
AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW:

FUTURE IMPLICATIONS OF THE IRAQ CONFLICT

Will military action in Iraq in spring 2003 lead to fundamental transformation or possible destruction of the UN Charter system of law on the use of force? This inaugural Selections contains more than a dozen essays on the Iraq conflict—all with an eye to the future—written by a distinguished group of scholars and attorneys, including Eyal Benvenisti, Todd F. Buchwald, Richard A. Falk, Tom J. Farer, Thomas M. Franck, Richard N. Gardner, Thomas D. Grant, Miriam Sapiro, David J. Scheffer, Carsten Stahn, Jane E. Stromseth, Ruth Wedgwood, John Yoo, and the Legal Adviser of the U.S. Department of State, William H. Taft IV. Originally appearing in an Agora in the July and October 2003 issues of the American Journal of International Law, these contributions are supplemented by the six relevant UN resolutions and other materials, making Selections an excellent classroom tool.

JOURNAL OF THE HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

Announcement and Call for Manuscripts

The Journal of the History of International Law is under new editorship with effect from Volume 6 (2004).

The new Editors-in-Chief are:

Peter Haggenmacher, Professor of Public International Law, Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva.

Michael Stolleis, Professor of Public Law, Director, Max Planck Institute for European Legal History, Frankfurt/Main.

Rüdiger Wolfrum, Professor of Public International Law, Director, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, Heidelberg.

The Journal appears biannually. The languages of the contributions are English and French.

The aim of the Journal is to contribute to make intelligible the international legal past, and to promote the application of a sense of historical proportion to current international legal problems.

The Journal will seek to open new fields of enquiry, and will encourage different methods of approaching the history of international law.

The editors are interested in receiving manuscripts for consideration for publication in the forthcoming issues. Essays should if possible be limited to about 20 pages. Scholarly research papers should be no more than 35 pages. Books for review and further suggestions will be welcome.

Correspondence and Manuscripts may be addressed to one of the editors, or to

Rosenne's The World Court: What It is and How It Works

Sixth Completely Revised Edition

EDITED, REVISED AND UPDATED BY TERRY D. GILL

WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF HARM DOTINGA, ERIK JAAP MOLENAAR AND ALEX OUDE ELFERINK

As was true for previous editions of this book, the present edition offers the non-specialist reader: the politician, diplomat, journalist or student of international law and relations - a guide and introduction to the International Court of Justice; what it is and how it works.

In print 2004 ISBN 90 04 13633 9
Hardback (xx, 332 pp.) List price EUR 80.- / US$ 100.-
Legal Aspects of International Organization, 40

The Perplexities of Modern International Law

SHABTAI ROSENNE

This is a revised and updated version of the General Course on Public International Law. Every 'precedent', whether legal or other, must first be placed in its historical and temporal context before we can see if it is applicable in new circumstances and the historical evolution of any notion or concept is important for an understanding of its current implications. Through a close linkage between law and history, the author takes us through the evolution of international law to where it stands today.

Co-publication with The Hague Academy of International Law

March 2004 ISBN 90 04 13692 4
Hardback (xxvi, 472 pp.) List price EUR 108.- / US$ 135.-
The Hague Academy of International Law Monographs, 2

Challenge of Religious Discrimination at the Dawn of the New Millennium

EDITED BY NAZILA GHANEA

The themes and issues explored in this book - religion, human rights, politics and society could not be more relevant to the post 11 September 2001 world. They lie at the heart of global political debate today. The collection explores these issues after the passing of just over two decades from the adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of all Forms of Intolerance and Discrimination based on Religion or Belief. Sadly the challenge of intolerance on the basis of religion or belief continues to plague us, and tackling it seems to have become increasingly entrenched.

In print 2004 ISBN 90 04 13641 X
Hardback (viii, 270 pp.) List price EUR 75.- / US$ 94.-

Making the Voice of Humanity Heard

Essays on humanitarian assistance and international humanitarian law in honour of HRH Princess Margriet of the Netherlands

EDITED BY LIESBETH LIJNZAAD, JOHANNA VAN SAMBEEK AND BAHIA TAHZIB-LIE, ON BEHALF OF THE NETHERLANDS MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND THE NETHERLANDS RED CROSS

This unique collection of scholarly and inspirational essays offers a wealth of information on the constituent components and statutory bodies of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and contemplates its mission to help victims and improve the lives of vulnerable people.

In print 2004 ISBN 90 04 13731 9

International Law and Political Reality

Collected Papers: Volume One

ANTHONY D'AMATO

Among the topics that D'Amato examines in these studies of the interrelationship between international law and political reality are wars and war crimes, nuclear weapons and technology, sanctions and terrorism, covert and humanitarian intervention, and group and autonomy rights.

In print 1995
Hardback (404 pp.)

ISBN 90 411 0036 9
List price EUR 119.- / US$ 161.-

International Law Studies

Collected Papers: Volume Two

ANTHONY D'AMATO

In this second volume of collected papers, the author addresses: - environmental law, - human rights, - international criminal law, - foreign relations law, - the intersection of political science and international law, and - the study and practice of international law. The insightful and probing nature of the author's wholly new analysis of these critical topics will intrigue any international law scholar or practitioner.

In print 1997
Hardback (404 pp.)

ISBN 90 411 0380 5
List price EUR 113.- / US$ 153.-

International Law Sources

Collected Papers: Volume Three

ANTHONY D'AMATO

Martinus Nijhoff Publishers is pleased to announce the third volume of this acclaimed series. In this volume, the author updates his essays on sources and the foundational questions of international law with new commentary.

'My sketch of Grotius fits D'Amato better than any other English-writing international legal scholar today. It is the cumulative effect of D'Amato's great body of work that warrants attention, now and far into the future.'

Nicholas Onuf.

'The main impression imparted by the volume as a whole is one of jurisprudential coherence and striking originality. It establishes Anthony D'Amato as one of the finest theoretical minds at work on international law issues, and it does so in an engaging manner that gives a reader the pleasure of participating actively in these explorations into the nature and function of international law.'

Richard A. Falk.

In print 2004
