Global Constitutionalism

■ Human Rights ■ Democracy ■ Rule of Law

Global Constitutionalism – Human Rights, Democracy and the Rule of Law (GlobCon) seeks to promote a deeper understanding on the foundations, limitations and principles of political order and their dynamics over time on a global scale.

The journal is interested in work that refers to constitutionalism as a template for empirical, conceptual or normative research on past, present and future political and legal practices, within and beyond the state.

GlobCon invites submissions from scholars of International Law, Political Science, International Relations, Comparative Constitutional Law, Comparative Politics, Political Theory and Philosophy.

Published in Association with the Centre for Globalisation and Governance,

Journal of Social Policy

A Journal of the Social Policy Association

Editors

Tania Burchardt, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK
Hartley Dean, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

The Journal of Social Policy carries high quality articles on all aspects of social policy in an international context. It places particular emphasis upon articles which seek to contribute to debates on the future direction of social policy, to present new empirical data, to advance theories, or to analyse issues in the making and implementation of social policies.

The Journal of Social Policy is part of the 'Social Policy Package' with Social Policy and Society.

Social Policy Digest

Editors

Fran Bennett, Oxford, UK

Ken Jones, Oxford, UK

The Social Policy Digest is designed as a key resource for all those working in UK social policy - policy-makers, researchers, teachers and students, campaigners, journalists, and practitioners. It provides an easily accessible listing of new developments across the whole social policy field.

The Digest is a companion to two journals - the Journal of Social Policy and Social Policy and Society - both of which are published on behalf of the Social Policy Association by Cambridge University Press.
