REPORT OF THE COUNCIL.

SESSION 1890-91.

THE Council of the Royal Historical Society present their Annual Report to the General Meeting of the Fellows for a period during which the constant progress of Historical research has necessitated a corresponding increase in the literary activity of the Society. The Council can point with satisfaction to the results achieved during this period, and they have every reason to believe that the Society will be materially benefited by these exertions and by the additional expenditure on literary undertakings. They therefore, once more, earnestly invite the zealous co-operation of the Fellows in furthering the well-known objects of the Society.

The following Papers have been read during the past Session :

‘Aryan Relations to Egypt and the Chaldeans.’ By J. S. Stuart Glennie, M.A.

‘The Use of the Political Lot at Athens.’ By J. W. Headlam, B.A.

‘The Old Irish on the Continent.’ By Professor Julius von Pfugk-Harttung.

‘Republican Government.’ By Oscar Browning, M.A., V.P.R.Hist.S.

‘The English Staple at Calais.’ By Hubert Hall, F.S.A.

‘Pieter Cornelis Hoof.’ By the Rev. G. Edmundson, M.A.

‘France and Cromwell.’ By Herbert Haines, M.A.

The reading of these Papers, however, by no means represents the literary activity of the Society. A volume of Transactions was published in the autumn of last year, which from the historical value of the contributions which it contained may be regarded with the utmost satisfaction.

Following up the very successful initiation of a series of publications with Mr. OSCAR BROWNING'S edition of 'England and Napoleon,' a second volume was issued in 1890 containing the texts of four important and hitherto inaccessible treatises on Husbandry during the Middle Ages, edited for the Society under the title of 'Walter of Henley,' by the late Miss ELIZABETH LAMOND and Professor W. CUNNINGHAM. This highly critical edition of mediæval MSS., which may be classed with the best productions of the Rolls Series, is certainly an enterprise on which a literary society may be congratulated, and the Council are glad to report that a copy has been obtained by the Public Record Office for purposes of reference.

Further progress has been made in the preparation of a second volume of the Papers read at the recent Domesday Commemoration, with which the Society was so closely identified through the action of its Secretary, Mr. P. Edward Dove.

The past Session has also been marked by an important step taken by the Council with the view of effectually carrying out the principal objects of the Society—namely the appointment of a Director to whom the superintendence of the literary work of the Society has been entrusted, subject to the control of the Council. This officer is charged with the duties of arranging for the Papers to be read at the usual Meetings of the Society, of editing the Transactions and Publications, and of corresponding with English and Foreign Historians in connection with the objects of the Society. On all these matters he reports to the Publication Committee, which during the past Session has transacted a considerable amount of business. The Director is also responsible for the literary Agenda for the Meetings of the Council and for the Reports of the Literary Meetings to the public press. In accordance with a resolution passed at a Meeting of the Council on March 19, 1891, Mr. Hubert Hall, F.S.A., of H.M. Public Record Office, a member of the Council of the Society, was appointed Director for a term of two years with an honorarium of £50 per annum.

An important Resolution was passed at a meeting of the Council on December 17 last; to the effect that a volume of Transactions should be issued to Fellows of the Society on October 31 in each year. This volume, in addition to the Papers read in the course of the past Session, will, it is expected, also contain the President's address delivered at the Annual General Meeting and a statement of the Progress of Historical Research during the past year, together with the texts or translations of original documents and historical notes, to which all Fellows of the Society are invited to contribute. A preliminary Statement was appended to the last volume of the Society's Transactions.

The Council have already issued a list of Papers to be read during the forthcoming Session, and they have much pleasure in announcing that, in addition to the approaching issue of a series of annual volumes of Transactions, several further important publications are in contemplation. The first of these will probably be an interesting collection of the despatches of the several military agents of the English Government accredited to the armies of the Allies during the Second Coalition of Europe against Napoleon I. This volume will be chiefly concerned with English diplomacy in Russia during the years 1804-6, and will be edited for the Society by Mr. OSCAR BROWNING.

Several other important works have been offered to the Council by English and Foreign Historians and are now under consideration.

Negotiations are pending between the Council and the Committee of St. Martin's Free Library with the view of enabling the Society's Library to be displayed to the best advantage and of obtaining important concessions in respect of the same. The result of these negotiations will be stated in the next Annual Report of the Council.

During the Session twenty-four Fellows have been elected, fourteen have died, and twelve have resigned.

The following list shows the number of Fellows on the Roll compared with that of last year :—

	Oct. 31, 1890.	Oct. 31, 1891.
Ordinary Fellows . . . . .	483	481
Life do. . . . .	91	94
Ex-officio do. . . . .	1	1
Honorary do. . . . .	58	55
Corresponding do. . . . .	25	25
Total . . . . .	658	656

The Council have to announce with great regret the death of Miss E. Lamond, whose distinguished share in the recent edition of 'Walter de Henley' has been fully and deservedly appreciated both within and outside the Society.

The Council have also to allude to another serious loss which the literary work of the Society has sustained through the sudden and regrettable death of Dr. John Webster, of Aberdeen, whilst engaged upon an important paper from original MSS. which he had kindly undertaken at the request of the President.

As this Report is going to press the Council hear with the deepest regret of the death of Dr. Zerffi, for many years a member of the Council and for some time its Chairman.

The Fellows who died during the past Session were: Hon. G. Bancroft, P. Chalmers, Sir R. Fowler, Colonel E. C. Johnson, H. W. Jones, Miss E. Lamond, Miss S. Marshall, His Imperial Highness Dom Pedro, J. A. Rose, Dr. Schliemann, Sir T. Sowler, J. R. Sturgis, A. Travers, J. Webster, LL.D.

The Council append the Treasurer's Account of Receipts and Payments and the Capital Account.

TREASURER'S ACCOUNT OF RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS.
