The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

50 Bedford Square, London, W.C. 1

President : Professor A. W. Gomme, F.B.A.

THE Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

1. A Library of some 30,000 volumes, containing many costly works and rare periodicals.
2. Some 25,000 lantern slides covering the whole domain of ancient life and art. Besides the general collection, there are sets of slides with lecture texts.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

By arrangement with the Society of Antiquaries the quarterly general meetings are normally held in that Society's rooms at Burlington House, Piccadilly, W. 1.

The Journal of Hellenic Studies, recognized at home and abroad as one of the foremost periodicals in the field of classical scholarship, contains articles by leading authorities, numerous illustrations and reviews of recent books of importance to classical studies; it is at present published yearly as a single volume, which members receive free of charge, the price to the public being £3.

The Annual Subscription to the Society is £2. The Composition Fee for life-membership is twenty guineas for persons over fifty years of age and thirty guineas for others. The subscription for Libraries and Student Associates is £2 and £1 respectively. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or inquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary at the above address.

The Classical Association

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £5 5s.). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association (gratis). They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review 30s., Quarterly 25s.; combined subscription 53s.). Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 20s.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. J. S. Shields, Peter Symonds' School, Winchester, Hants. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Hon. Secretaries of the Association (Professor L. J. D. Richardson, University College, Cardiff, and Mr. T. W. Melliish, Bec School, S.W. 17) or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the District Branches—viz., Aberystwyth, Bangor, Bedford, Birmingham, Bristol, East Anglia, Cambridge, Cardiff, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicestershire, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Northampton, Northumberland and Durham, Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Shrewsbury, Southampton, South-Western, N. Staffordshire, Sussex, Swansea, Tees-side, Worcester.
