Contents

Lis	st of Figures st of Contributors knowledgements	page vii viii ix
	Introduction: Rethinking History, Globally STEFANIE GÄNGER AND JÜRGEN OSTERHAMMEL	1
Pa	rt I Forms of Inquiry and Argumentation
1	Explanation: The Limits of Narrativism in Global History JÜRGEN OSTERHAMMEL	23
2	Comparison: Its Use and Misuse in Social and Economic History ALESSANDRO STANZIANI	47
3	Time: Temporality in Global History CHRISTINA BRAUNER	70
4	Quantification: Measuring Connections and Comparative Development in Global History PIM DE ZWART	92
Part II Concepts and Metaphors
5	The Global and the Earthy: Taking the Planet Seriously as a Global Historian SUJIT SIVASUNDARAM	117
6	Openness and Closure: Spheres and Other Metaphors of Boundedness in Global History VALESKA HUBER	139
7	Scales: From Shipworms to the Globe and Back DÁNIEL MARGÓCSY	161

v

vi Contents

Part III Configurations and Telos

8	Tacit Directionality: Processes, Teleology and Contingency in Global History JAN C. JANSEN	185
9	Distance: A Problem in Global History JEREMY ADELMAN	210
10	Materiality: Global History and the Material World STEFANIE GÄNGER	235
11	Centrisms: Questions of Privilege and Perspective in Global Historical Scholarship DOMINIC SACHSENMAIER	254
Index		274