On the cover: Journalist William Cowper Brann published the Iconoclast Magazine out of Waco, Texas, in the 1890s, using its pages to skewer the 'pharasaical plutocrats' of orthodox Protestantism until his 1898 assassination. Brann's career suggests a need to rethink assumptions about the evangelical religious context of Populist reform, a context that was far more diverse, skeptical, and conflicted than is usually understood.
