MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Society is open to:

- Physicians, health care management professionals, dentists, pharmacists, nurses, social workers, and others involved in health care delivery;
- Attorneys, legislators, administrators, and members of the judiciary concerned with medicolegal claims and issues;
- Educators, researchers, insurers, and all other persons desirous of supporting the Society's goal of continuing medicolegal education on a multi-disciplined basis;
- Students in graduate schools of the above professions;
- Professional organizations and corporations such as hospitals, foundations, professional schools, pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers, law firms, and insurance companies with interest in medicolegal matters through discounted group membership status.

Regular membership dues are $60 per year; student dues are $28. As a non-profit tax-exempt organization, membership dues and conference fees are tax-deductible for federal income tax purposes. Special group membership rates are available for those interested in institutional membership in the Society so that a variety of individuals within the same organization can receive MEDICOLEGAL NEWS and the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

Members of the Society receive annual subscriptions to both of the Society's two quarterly publications, the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE and MEDICOLEGAL NEWS; reduced registration fees at all Society sponsored symposia and educational programs; no-charge access to the ASLM Book Purchase Service which facilitates ordering of medical and legal texts; low charge photocopying service on materials listed in the Medicolegal Reference Shelf section of MEDICOLEGAL NEWS; and access to a new medicolegal library and information center now being established by the Society in the Boston area.

PURPOSE

The American Society of Law & Medicine is a non-profit, tax-exempt professional society comprised of physicians, attorneys, health care management executives, nurses, insurers, and others which strives to promote effective and reasoned interaction between the many disciplines involved with the ever-expanding interrelations of law, medicine, and health care. In furtherance of its goal of continuing medicolegal education on a multi-disciplined basis, the American Society of Law & Medicine conducts a variety of educational, publication, and award programs.

PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES PUBLICATIONS:

The Society publishes two quarterly periodicals: the law-review modelled AMERICAN JOURNAL OF LAW & MEDICINE, and MEDICOLEGAL NEWS, the latter of which includes news from the Society, original articles on current medicolegal issues, and an unique bibliographic clearinghouse section devoted to current medicolegal information from diverse sources arranged under a variety of subject headings.

AWARD PROGRAMS:

Each year the Society honors one or more persons who have distinguished themselves in the medicolegal field with its Honorary Life Membership Award. Past recipients of the award include: Senator Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.); Harvard Professor of Legal Medicine, William J. Curran; former United States Congressman Paul G. Rogers; the Honorable Elliot L. Richardson; and Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.

Additionally, the annual John P. Rattigan Memorial Essay Competition awards cash prizes to graduate students who have researched and written on a topic of current medicolegal import.

CONFERENCES AND SYMPOSIA:

Each year the Society sponsors and conducts a variety of local or national programs on issues affecting law, medicine, insurance, and health care, many of which have been co-sponsored by some of the nation's leading medical and legal organizations. The faculty for each conference includes a combination of Society members knowledgeable in the specific substantive area plus nationally recognized experts. Recent program subject topics include: Controversies in Law & Medicine; Forensic Medicine and Society; Legal Controversies in Nursing; Legal Implications of Emergency Medical Care; Stress, Strain, Heart Disease, and the Law; and Health Care Facility Labor Law.

IN THE FOREFRONT OF MEDICOLEGAL KNOWLEDGE...

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE LAW, SECOND EDITION

by ANGELA RODDEY HOLDER, LL.M., currently Counsel for Medicolegal Affairs at Yale-New Haven Hospital, and Lecturer in Pediatrics at the Yale University School of Medicine. Member of the Bars of South Carolina and Louisiana.

With a Foreword by Jay Katz, M.D., Professor (Adjunct) of Law and Psychiatry, Yale Law School, New Haven, Connecticut.

"... In its field, this book is unequalled in scope and value to the physician as well as the lawyer... The author has combined the treatise and casebook approach with a thoroughly commendable result."—Journal of Medical Education, July 1976

Up-to-date coverage of malpractice topics which hold current public interest, with over 2,000 actual cases integrated throughout.

For those who are asking... What is the relationship of the quality of life to the patient's right to die? What is the government's stand on "informed consent" of the patient for purposes of medical research? What rights does a minor have regarding contraception? abortion? What should the physician know before diagnosing child abuse? Have the medical and legal responsibilities of organ transplantation been clearly defined?

1978 576 Pages $25.00

Also available, by the same author:

LEGAL ISSUES IN PEDIATRICS AND ADOLESCENT MEDICINE

Howard A. Pearson,
M.D., Professor and Chairman, Department of Pediatrics, Yale University School of Medicine.

"Persons interested in the legal aspects of the health care of minors will find this an invaluable resource... Ms. Holder has done a masterful job in compiling an extraordinarily comprehensive book..."
—The New England Journal of Medicine, June, 1977

Covers such topics as adoption, child abuse, child custody, the child as offender, contraception, and abortion.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

The Editors encourage the submission of manuscripts on a wide range of medicolegal topics for publication in the JOURNAL. Acceptable subjects include health law and policy; legal, ethical, social, and economic aspects of medical practice, education, and research; health-related insurance; and other important or interesting subjects involving the relationship of the life sciences to the social sciences and humanities. The JOURNAL is interdisciplinary. Contributions from specialists in a variety of disciplines are welcomed. All materials should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief, American Journal of Law & Medicine, Editorial Offices, 454 Brookline Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215.

POLICY ON MULTIPLE SUBMISSION: The Editor-in-Chief receives manuscripts in the understanding that they have not simultaneously been submitted elsewhere for consideration for publication.

GENERAL FORM: Manuscripts should be typewritten on one side of the paper only, with triple spacing and liberal margins. Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate, i.e., an original and two carbon or Xerox copies. The title of the paper and the author's name and address should be given on a covering sheet.

ABSTRACT: A short abstract (normally not exceeding 200 words) succinctly summarizing the content of the manuscript should accompany the manuscript on a separate sheet. If the paper is accepted, the abstract will be published along with the manuscript.

REFERENCES: Footnotes to sources should be numbered consecutively, and placed on triple spaced pages at the end of the text. All footnotes should conform to A Uniform System of Citation (12th ed.), published and distributed by the Harvard Law Review Association, Gannett House, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138. Non-lawyers unfamiliar with this system should follow the citation form accepted in their field and the Editors of the JOURNAL will make the appropriate modifications if the paper is published.

ILLUSTRATIONS: Illustrations and tables accompanying manuscripts should be numbered, provided with suitable legends, and marked lightly on the back with the author's name. Authors should indicate on the manuscript the appropriate positions of tables and text figures. Special arrangements must be made with the Editor-in-Chief for color plates, elaborate tables, half-tone illustrations or extra illustrations, drawings, and photographs.

PUBLICATION LANGUAGE: English.

SELECTION AND EDITING TIMETABLE: Receipt of manuscript will be acknowledged within one week of receipt. Authors will be notified of the manuscript's acceptance or rejection within one to three months, and accepted manuscripts will be published within three to eight months of acceptance.

PROOFS AND AUTHOR OFFPRINTS: Because of time pressures, printer's proofs of articles accepted for publication will not be made available to authors. Thirty offprints of each article, enclosed in JOURNAL covers, will be distributed to the author or divided among the authors if there are more than one. Orders for additional offprints, for which a fee is charged, must be communicated at least one month prior to publication.

RETURN OF MANUSCRIPTS: Upon request of the author and upon receipt of a suitable envelope stamped with adequate postage, the Editor-in-Chief will return to the author the original of any manuscript not accepted for publication.
