

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Two Academic Programs in Law and Philosophy at the University of Western Ontario. (1) There is a Special Ph.D. Program in Legal Philosophy. This program gives up to four semester courses credits towards the Ph.D. degree for having taken first year law at an accredited law school (antecedent to entering or during the program). Enrollment in the Ph.D. philosophy and law program is undertaken after the completion of an M.A. and with admission to Philosophy through the Graduate Faculty UWO. (2) There is an LL.B./M.A. program. In this program law students at the University of Western Ontario may receive credit towards the LL.B. degree by taking certain philosophy courses (up to four semester courses). Enrollment in the LL.B./M.A. program is undertaken at the end of the first year of LL.B. studies; a special M.A. year in philosophy is taken after completing the LL.B. degree. Graduate students in philosophy are eligible for various forms of financial support, to a maximum of $12,000. Application for the Ph.D. program should be made to the Director of Graduate Studies, Department of Philosophy, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, Canada N6A 3K7.

This Journal is planning another special topic issue to appear in July 1991, viz., Collective Rights. The guest editor is Michael McDonald, who can be contacted by anyone interested in being considered for the issue, at the Department of Philosophy, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC, Canada V6T 1W5.
