The Shelf List of the

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY LIBRARY, New York City

Unsurpassed among the theological collections in the U.S., this library is especially strong in the historical field. Large holdings of incunabula and 16th century Bibles, Greek Testaments and Gospels embody 500 years of Bible translation, revision and publication. Other strong areas of this collection include exegetical materials, homiletics, liturgics, sociology, religious education, psychiatry and religion, ecumenics, sacred music, religious drama, and missions. Arrangement of entries is according to a classification system developed to meet the specialized needs of the large theological library.

African Independent Church

H. W. TURNER

The most detailed and comprehensive study yet made of any of the independent churches of Africa. The approach has four facets—historical, phenomenological, liturgical, and theological—and seeks to answer the basic questions: Is this a Christian church and how far has it been Africanized? The Letters of Pope Innocent III (1198-1216)

Concerning England and Wales

A Calendar with an Appendix of Texts

Edited by C. R. CHENEY and MARY G. CHENEY

1,200 letters, or traces of letters, cover a period not only critical in Anglo-papal political relations but also of the highest significance in the history of church government. In an Appendix more than 250 of the letters are printed for first time. Facsimile letter in pocket at end £8 8s net

John Cosin: A Collection of Private Devotions

Edited by P. G. STANWOOD with the assistance of DANIEL O'CONNOR

This edition provides for the first time a reliable text of the Devotions in the form in which it was first published in 1627. There is an Introduction placing it in its historical context and a Commentary which points to Cosin's sources as well as to the influence of the Devotions on revisions of the Book of Common Prayer. 3 plates 75s net

Aethelwulf: De Abbatibus

Edited by A. CAMPBELL

This Northumbrian Latin poem of the first quarter of the ninth century presents an unparalleled view of Anglo-Saxon monastic life from the inside. The new edition makes full use of all the manuscripts for the first time, and offers a literal translation, besides textual, historical, and linguistic studies. 30s net

Bayeux in the Late Eighteenth Century

A Social Study

OLWEN H. HUFTON

This study reflects some of the current preoccupations of students of eighteenth-century France with urban social structure and its relevance to the Revolution of 1789. Detailed case histories have been used to find out how the people of Bayeux lived under the old regime and how the Revolution affected their livelihood, which leaned so heavily on a wealthy church. 1 map 63s net

Documents of the Christian Church

Selected and edited by HENRY BETTENS

First published in 1943, this book won a world-wide reputation. It provides an indispensable background to Church history and current events. Second edition 12s 6d net

EASTERN CHURCHES REVIEW

Editor: E. J. B. FRY

Associate Editors: DONALD ATTWATER, GEORGE EVERY, S.S.M., KALLISTOS TIMOTHY WARE

ECR exists to increase the knowledge of Eastern Christendom in the English-speaking world

- by longer articles on theology, liturgy, history, art, music, Church relations.
- by short information articles on Eastern Churches in different parts of the world, and on current events.
- by translating Orthodox and other Oriental Christian comment not readily available in the West.
- by news reports and information, both scholarly and topical.
- by serious reviewing of books on our subjects.
