Tomorrow's Social History

The Centre for Contemporary Social History, Free University Brussels, will organize a one-day colloquium on "Tomorrow's Social History: Recent Developments and Perspectives of Social History of the Modern Period" on 29 March 1996. The aim of this colloquium is to discuss the uneven development of scholarly trends (the "linguistic turn", etc.) within Western Europe. The speakers will include Patricia van den Eeckhout, Jürgen Kocka, Marcel van der Linden, Jan Lucassen, Keith Neild, Jean-Luc Pinol, Peter Scholliers and Louise Tilly. Those interested should contact: Prof. J. Hannes, Centrum voor Hedendaagse Sociale Geschiedenis, Lokaal 5 B 421, Pleinlaan 2, 1050 Brussels, Belgium.
