Fighting for Faith and Nation

Dialogues with Sikh Militants
Cynthia Keppley Mahmood

"... a stunning presentation of narrative ethnography, achieving the remarkable feat of forcing the reader to enter into the world—and the world view—of those whom most of us would regard as terrorists. The issues this book raises cannot be ignored."

—Mark Juergensmeyer,

University of California

Going beyond such easy labels as "fundamentalism" and "terrorism"

Mahmood shows how complex and multifaceted the human experience of political violence can be. Drawing on her extensive interviews with Sikh militants, she presents their accounts of the human rights abuses inflicted on them by the state of India as well as their explanations of the philosophical tradition of martyrdom and meaningful death in the Sikh faith.

Media and the Transformation of Religion in South Asia

Edited by Lawrence A. Babb and Susan S. Wadley

This volume of provocative essays explores the effects of the religious transformation taking place in India as sacred symbols assume the shapes of media images.

352 pages, 23 b&w illustrations,
£15.95 pb

Hierarchy and Its Discontents

Culture and the Politics of Consciousness in Caste Society
Steven M. Parish

The first-hand accounts included in this volume illustrate how Newar Hindus struggle with ambivalence regarding a system that fills their everyday lives with injustices and yet is viewed as a moral basis for traditional Hindu civilization and as a part of the natural order. Hierarchy and Its Discontents records ambivalence and dissent along the margins and at the heart of the caste system, documenting both acceptance of and resistance to definitions of self and society imposed by caste ideology.
264 pages, 2 maps, £16.95 pb

Contesting the Nation

Religion, Community, and the Politics of Democracy in India
Edited by David Ludden

Animated by a sense of urgency that was heightened by the massive violence following the destruction of the Babri mosque in Ayodhya on December 6, 1992, Contesting the Nation explores Hindu majoritarian politics of the last century and its dramatic reformulation during the decline of the Congress Party in the 1980s. Twelve prominent scholars from India, Europe, and the United States provide perspectives from various fields, comparing trends in India with ethnic, religious, and cultural movements in other parts of the world.

320 pages, £18.95 pb

Fantasizing the Feminine in Indonesia

Laurie J. Sears, editor

The stories of Indonesian women have often been told by Indonesian men and Dutch men and women. This volume asks how these representations have circumscribed feminine behaviour in colonial and postcolonial Indonesia. 352 pages, 17 b&w photos
£16.95 pb

Phantasmatic Indochina

French Colonial Ideology
in Architecture, Film, and Literature

Panivong Norindr

This reflection on colonial culture argues for an examination of "Indochina" as a fictive and mythic construct, a phantasmatic legacy of French colonialism in Southeast Asia.

Shadows of Empire

Colonial Discourse and Javanese Tales

Laurie J. Sears

Shadows of Empire explores Javanese shadow theater as a staging area for negotiations between colonial power and indigenous traditions. 352 pages, 23 b&w photos,
£15.95 pb

Chinese Modernism in the Era of Reforms

Cultural Fever, Avant-Garde
Fiction, and the New Chinese
Cinema

Zhang Xudong

Blending history and theory, this book offers both a historical narrative and a critical analysis of the cultural visions and experiences of China's post-Mao era.
Post-Contemporary Interventions

Portraits in Chinese History

John E. Wills, Jr.

Through biographies of China's most colorful and famous personalities, John Wills displays the five-thousand-year sweep of Chinese history from the legendary sage emperors to the tragedy of Tiananmen Square.

"[A] spirited and highly intelligent book. . . . There is high drama, cruelty, and excess in many of these stories. . . . And there is also wit and charm mixed with the telling of great events."

—Jonathan Spence, The New York Times Book Review
