LAW & SOCIETY

Review

Policy

The Law & Society Review is a peer-reviewed publication for work bearing on the relationship between society and the legal process, including articles or notes of interest to the research community in general, new theoretical developments, results of empirical studies, and comments on the field or its methods of inquiry. The Review is broadly interdisciplinary and welcomes work from any tradition of scholarship concerned with the cultural, economic, political, psychological, or social aspects of law and legal systems.

Manuscript Submission

What to submit: Five copies of the manuscript and an abstract of about 100 words, together with a brief biographical description of the author(s). Manuscripts submitted to the Review must not be under consideration by another publication. Manuscripts cannot be returned to authors.

Manuscript format: Delete all identifying references from four of the five copies of your manuscript. Text, including footnotes and references, should be double spaced with 1-inch margins. Footnotes, references, tables, and figures should be placed at the end. An abridged style sheet is published regularly in the Review; a full style sheet is available on request.

LAW & SOCIETY REVIEW
A LEADING JOURNAL FOR THEORY
AND RESEARCH IN STUDIES OF LAW AND SOCIETY

Membership in the Association is open to individuals and includes a subscription to Law & Society Review. The Review has published the highest quality interdisciplinary empirical research and theory for over thirty years and has one of the largest circulations in the fields of sociolegal studies. It is a broadly interdisciplinary peer-reviewed journal offering articles on important developments in theory and empirical research on law, legal institutions, and law-related aspects of society. International in scope, the Review publishes the work of authors from many countries about their own and other societies and cultures. Law & Society Review also offers review essays on current theory, research and comments on the field and its method of inquiry.

Members bring training in law, sociology, political science, psychology, anthropology, economics and history as well as in other related areas. The Annual Meeting of the Association, held in late spring, convenes scholars and others from around the world to present and examine research. The Association Newsletter is also included in membership.
