Gold Seeker

Adventures of a Belgian Argonaut during the Gold Rush Years

Jean-Nicolas Perlot

Translated by Helen Harding Bretnor

Edited and with an introduction by

Howard R. Lamar

A witty and engrossing account of a young Belgian's experiences in California and Oregon during the Gold Rush years. Perlot's memoir is not only delightful reading but also illuminates important themes in both European and American history. £29.95

In the Company of Educated Women

A History of Women and Higher Education in America

Barbara Miller Solomon

This book, the first synthetic and comprehensive history of women in American higher education in over fifty years, has been written by the leading authority in the field. £25.00

Slavery and Freedom on the Middle Ground

Maryland during the Nineteenth Century

Barbara Jeanne Fields

Fields shows how Maryland's centrist moderation turned into centrist immoderation under the stress of the Civil War, and, in so doing, offers historical reflections on the underlying character both of slave society and of the society that replaced it. £27.50

Distributive Justice

A Social-Psychological Perspective

Morton Deutsch

In this book a distinguished educator and researcher explores the social and psychological ramifications of different distributive systems for education, the workplace, the current economic situation, and the prevention of nuclear holocaust. £27.50

American Sociology

Worldly Rejections of Religion and Their Directions

Arthur J. Vidich and Stanford M. Lyman

A pathbreaking history of the evolution of American sociology. Vidich and Lyman analyse the work of crucial American social and philosophical thinkers to show how religious elements in the Protestant tradition have influenced and continue to shape sociological perspectives. £30.00

Neighborhood Services

Making Big Cities Work

John Mudd

Coordination of services is an elusive but essential goal for government. Mudd describes how New York City developed a model for district manager cabinets that successfully improved the coordination and responsiveness of municipal services in local neighborhoods. £20.00

Keeping Track

How Schools Structure Inequality

Jeannie Oakes Foreword by John Goodlad

This provocative book shows that tracking — the system of grouping students for instruction on the basis of ability — provides markedly unequal educational experiences. £21.50

Women Teachers on the Frontier

Polly Welts Kaufman

Kaufman provides an absorbing account of the women teachers who travelled alone to the West before the Civil War, illustrating her history with letters, a diary, and a reminiscence. Now in paper £9.95

Songsters and Saints

Vocal Traditions on Race Records

PAUL OLIVER

An innovatory book in which this celebrated writer on the blues rediscovers the wealth of neglected traditions to be found on Race records issued specifically for black purchasers in the 1920s. From songs of Southern rural dances to the even more neglected song-sermons of the Baptist and Sanctified preachers and the gospel songs of the church congregations, this is the first book to examine the presence of these traditions on commercial records.

A Critical Introduction to Twentieth-Century American Drama

Volume 2: Tennessee Williams, Arthur Miller, Edward Albee

C. W. E. BIGSBY

The second in a three-volume critical history of the important American dramatists and theatrical movements in this century. The author gives a full account of the early unpublished plays and the major works by each playwright, drawing on biographical detail and political background to illuminate his reading of the plays.

Self and Sensibility in Contemporary American Poetry

CHARLES ALTIERI

Arguing that the 'poetry of conjecture' is the most appropriate mode in which to express the complex and ambivalent sensibility of our time, the author focuses in turn on poets such as Charles Wright, William Stafford, Robert Haas and Louis Gluck, Robert Creeley, John Ashberry, and Adrienne Rich.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

- 1 All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, School of English and American Studies, University of East Anglia, Norwich NR4 7TJ, England.
- 2 Articles should generally contain about 5,000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editors.
- 3 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
- 4 Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing (including footnotes), preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams, maps and illustrations may be included.
- 5 Spelling may conform either to British or American usage, providing it is consistent throughout.
- 6 Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered consecutively, and may most conveniently be placed, in double spacing, at the end of the article.
- 7 For guidance on matters of style, contributors should refer either to the MLA Handbook (1977), or to the Journal of American Studies Style Notes, copies of which may be obtained from the Editors.
- 8 Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
- 9 Notes intended for the Editors or Printer should be on a separate sheet.
- 10 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within three days of receiving them.
- 11 Corrections should be kept to an absolute minimum. They should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
- 12 Contributors of articles and review essays receive 25 free offprints. Extra copies may be ordered according to a scale of charges.
- 13 Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
- 14 Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the USA.
