

NEW FROM UNC PRESS

BERNARDO DE GÁLVEZ
Spanish Hero of the American Revolution
Gonzalo M. Quintero Saravia

"A meticulous and expertly researched study of a major figure in Spanish history that sheds light on the Spanish empire, military history, and the international imperial rivalries that intersected with the American Revolution."

—David Narrett,
 University of Texas at Arlington
 616 pages $38.00

MIGRANT LONGING
Letter Writing across the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands

Miroslava Chávez-García
 "In mapping her family's journeys across and between Mexico and California, Chávez-García argues that this rich archive of letters not only offers a window into the sweeping social, political, and economic changes wrought in Mexico in the mid-twentieth century, but also offers insight into the lives so deeply affected by those changes."

—Monica Perales, University of Houston
 280 pages $27.95 paper

@BOOK Most UNC Press books are also available as E-Books.

CUBAN REVOLUTION IN AMERICA

Havana and the Making of a United States Left, 1968–1992

Teishan A. Latner

"A remarkable scholarly achievement. Scholars of the international Left will read this book with great interest. At the same time, I would expect that this well-written and compelling book would find an audience with the thousands of activists who participated in the Venceremos Brigade and related pro-Cuban projects. An engaging, pathbreaking work of international history."

—David Farber, author of
The Age of Great Dreams
 368 pages $37.50

CHILDREN OF UNCERTAIN FORTUNE

Mixed-Race Jamaicans in Britain and the Atlantic Family, 1733-1833

Daniel Livesay

"Livesay gracefully brings to life the extraordinary, sometimes heartbreaking stories of mixed-race Caribbean people in Great Britain, revealing the long, complicated lines of family and belonging, race and alienation. It compellingly illuminates slavery, empire, and colonialism and their enduring impact on individuals, families, and nations."

—Sarah M. S. Pearsall,
 University of Cambridge
 432 pages $45.00

Published by the Omohundro Institute of Early American History and Culture

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial Policy

The Journal of Latin American Studies is published four times a year, in February, May, August and November. Its editorial offices are located at the Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London. The editorial board comprises area studies specialists based in the United Kingdom from all the principal social science disciplines, including history.

The Journal aims to publish recent research in the field of Latin American studies in economics, geography, politics, international relations, sociology, social anthropology and history. Articles on literature and the arts are not normally included, but the editors are pleased to consider contributions in the field of intellectual and cultural history. Articles with an interdisciplinary approach are particularly welcome.

Manuscript Submission (visit <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jlas>)

Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contributions. They should not be under consideration by another journal, nor have been published or be awaiting publication elsewhere. Translations of articles that have already been published will not be accepted. If an author is publishing a closely related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated in a cover note to the editors. Authors of articles published in the Journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper.

Articles should be between 10,000 and 12,000 words, including footnotes, tables etc. The Journal is published in English, but articles may also be submitted in Spanish or Portuguese for peer review; if accepted for publication, the responsibility for translating articles rests with the author.

For full instructions on submissions and journal style, visit www.cambridge.org/jlas.

The Journal publishes commissioned book reviews in each issue. Not all books received can be reviewed, and editorial policy gives preference to reviews of books regarded as being of major importance for the disciplines covered by the Journal. Unsolicited reviews cannot be considered.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

All editorial correspondence should be addressed to The Editors, Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK, or sent to jas@sas.ac.uk.

Proofs

Proofs of accepted articles will be sent to authors as pdf files for checking and correction of typesetting errors. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.

This issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
