INTERDISCIPLINARY JOURNAL

An Interdisciplinary Journal on Military Institutions, Civil-Military Relations, Arms Control and Peacekeeping, and Conflict Management

Board of Editors

Raymond Aron, University of Paris

S. E. Finer, Oxford University

Morris Janowitz, University of Chicago

Jacques Van Doorn, Erasmus University, Rotterdam

Donna H. Ellefson, Associate Editor

Since its publication, Armed Forces and Society has established an international reputation as a journal by which teachers, researchers, students of public affairs, political analysts, and policy makers can keep abreast of the most important intellectual developments in war and peace studies. Armed Forces and Society combines a strong historical emphasis with a contemporary perspective in the social and behavioral sciences. The journal analyzes controversial problems with detachment and clarity. It is dedicated both to technical advancement in the social sciences and to high literary standards. The journal is published quarterly and is sponsored by the Inter-University Seminar on Armed Forces and Society.

The Politicization of Society

Edited by Kenneth S. Templeton, Jr.

“The state has increasingly replaced the church in determining how we should behave,” writes Oxford professor R. M. Hartwell in his introduction. “Politics is now religion.” Fourteen scholars examine the central problem of modern society—the growth of the state—and its significance for the individual. They are Robert L. Carneiro, Felix Morley, Murray N. Rothbard, William Marina, Robert A. Nisbet, Jacques Ellul, Giovanni Sartori, Michael Oakeshott, Donald M. Dozer, Herbert Butterfield, John A. Lukacs, Jonathan R. T. Hughes, Butler D. Shaffer, and F. A. Hayek. Hardcover $10.00, Paperback $4.50.

We pay postage, but require prepayment, on orders from individuals. Please allow four to six weeks for delivery. To order this book, or for a copy of our catalog, write:
